

Introduction

Instructor: _____ Name: _____
Class: Falls Prevention _____ Date: _____
Session: Introduction _____ Results: _____

Instructions

Instruct all students to read each question carefully and then circle the correct answer.

- 1. If a patient has difficulty mobilising – what should you do?
 - a. Communicate this to all staff involved in the care of this patient
 - b. Encourage mobility aids to be brought into the hospital
 - c. Locate mobility aids at the side of the bed the patient prefers to exit
 - d. Supervise and assist high risk patients
 - e. All of the above

- 2. If a patient is known to have osteoporosis and is at risk of falls, what type of supplements would be MOST EFFECTIVE in reducing osteoporosis?
 - a. Calcium
 - b. Calcium and Vitamin D
 - c. Vitamin D
 - d. Vitamin E

- 3. Once a falls risk screen has been completed and the patient is at risk of falls, what should you do?
 - a. Make sure referrals are completed and actioned
 - b. Management plan developed and actioned
 - c. Communicate to staff involved in the care of the patient
 - d. Put in fall prevention strategies
 - e. All of the above
 - f. That is all I have to do